SpiceJet Expands Domestic Network with 24 New Flights for Summer 2025

Adds Three New Destinations: Tuticorin, Porbandar & Dehradun

Strengthens Connectivity with New Routes Including Ahmedabad-Srinagar & Pune-Varanasi

SpiceJet announced the launch of 24 new domestic flights as part of its Summer 2025 schedule. The airline expanded its network by adding three new destinations – Tuticorin, Porbandar, and Dehradun – while introducing new routes to enhance connectivity across the country.

The airline commenced operations on these new routes in a phased manner from March 30, 2025.

Tuticorin is connected to Chennai and Bengaluru, with a daily direct flight to Bengaluru and twice-daily flights to Chennai, offering passengers the convenience of same-day return travel.

This summer, travellers from Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Delhi and Mumbai can enjoy seamless access to the picturesque and cool retreat of Dehradun, with direct SpiceJet flights connecting them to the serene foothills of the Himalayas.

Porbandar is exclusively connected to Mumbai with a non-stop flight operating twice a week (Tuesdays and Thursdays) from April 1, 2025.

Further expanding its domestic footprint, SpiceJet introduced new flights on the Ahmedabad-Srinagar and Pune-Varanasi sectors while also reconnecting Bengaluru with Goa and Pune with Chennai, offering passengers greater travel options.

Debojo Maharshi, Chief Business Officer, SpiceJet, said, “As the summer holidays approach, we are excited to present a bouquet of new destinations to make your summer vacations unforgettable! We are thrilled to introduce 24 new flights, connecting you to the scenic hills of Dehradun, the stunning beaches of Tuticorin, and the historic city of Porbandar. With new connections like Ahmedabad-Srinagar and Pune-Varanasi, our new flights ensure seamless connectivity to some of India’s most sought-after destinations. SpiceJet is all about opening up the skies, bringing affordable thrills to every corner of India, and turning your summer travel dreams into reality – especially for those hidden gems waiting to be explored!”

Bookings for these flights are now open on www.spicejet.com, the SpiceJet mobile app, and through online travel portals and agents.

SpiceJet Successfully Renews Prestigious IATA IOSA Certification

Certification Valid Until March 2027, Reinforces Airline’s Commitment to Global Safety Standards

SpiceJet is proud to announce the successful renewal of its IATA Operational Safety Audit (IOSA) certification, a globally recognised benchmark for operational safety. This achievement reaffirms SpiceJet’s unwavering commitment to maintaining the highest safety and operational standards.

The successful renewal of the IOSA certification is valid until March 2027.

The IOSA audit, conducted by the International Air Transport Association (IATA), is a rigorous, internationally accepted evaluation of an airline’s operational management and control systems. SpiceJet underwent the comprehensive audit in two phases – a remote documentation audit, followed by an on-site assessment conducted from December 9 to 12, 2024. A team of five international auditors conducted in-depth checks of the airline’s processes, emergency response procedures, and risk-based maturity framework.

Ajay Singh, Chairman and Managing Director, SpiceJet, said, “We are delighted to have successfully renewed our IOSA certification, which is a testament to our airline’s steadfast dedication to safety and operational excellence. Safety is and will always be SpiceJet’s topmost priority, and we will continue to invest in the latest technology, training, and processes to ensure the highest standards of safety for our passengers and crew.”

Securing the IOSA certification not only reaffirms SpiceJet’s compliance with global safety benchmarks but also enhances its credibility, improves operational efficiency, boosts customer satisfaction, and strengthens its competitive edge in the aviation industry.

FIGHTING FOR THE FORGOTTEN:

How Dubai Empowers Dedicated Professionals Like Vishal Ashok Tinani to Champion Justice

Dubai's legal system is as strict as a protective parent—maintaining zero tolerance for any legal missteps. From fraud to breach of trust, white-collar crimes are met with severe consequences. While the city stands as a global business hub, many individuals—particularly laborers and middle-class expatriates—struggle due to a lack of legal awareness, a fundamental necessity in any country. This knowledge gap often challenge? Many don't have the financial means or legal support to defend themselves or secure their release when caught in such situations.

That's when real changemakers take action—those who don't just advocate for justice but actively work to uphold it.

One such individual is Vishal Ashok Tinani, an Indian lawyer whose legal battles aren't only for billion-dollar corporations but also for those who can barely afford a bus ticket home. His unwavering dedication was recently recognized when he received a Certificate of Appreciation from Dubai Police's General Department of Criminal Investigation

A Lawyer who fights for the forgotten

Tinani's recognition wasn't for securing million-dollar settlements but for helping struggling, wrongfully accused individuals—most of whom had no financial means to defend themselves. Many of these people:

- Had no understanding of the legal process (because, let's be real, legal jargon can sound like a foreign language).
- Couldn't afford lawyers (because when you're struggling to send money home, hiring legal counsel isn't an option).
- Were laborers or middle-class workers caught in legal tangles due to misunderstandings, financial distress, or small mistakes that escalated into major problems.

Despite their desperate situations, Tinani fought for their rights, worked towards their repatriation, and ensured they weren't left to suffer in silence. His tireless efforts have helped numerous detainees—including nine Indian nationals—return home legally, sparing them from prolonged imprisonment in a foreign country.

Dubai: A City That Rewards Dedication, Regardless of Nationality

Tinani's work proves that Dubai is a city that values integrity, dedication, and justice—irrespective of nationality. His efforts have benefited individuals from all walks of life, ensuring that everyone, regardless of financial standing, receives fair legal treatment.

Dubai's recognition of his contributions is not just an acknowledgment of his legal expertise; it also reflects the city's commitment to justice, inclusivity, and the empowerment of those who dedicate themselves to making a difference. His journey is a shining example of how Dubai offers opportunities to those who beacon for professionals seeking to thrive on merit.

Beyond Borders, Beyond Nationality

Tinani's commitment isn't limited by nationality—his efforts have supported individuals from diverse backgrounds, ensuring they receive fair legal treatment regardless of their financial standing. His work serves as a lifeline for those lacking resources or understanding the legal intricacies that dictate their fate.

A Moment of Pride for India

Legal troubles can be daunting—especially when one lacks the financial means to fight back. But in such moments, people like Vishal Ashok Tinani prove that justice is not just for the privileged. His dedication, resilience, and selfless service bring immense pride to India, showcasing the true spirit of Indian values compassion, integrity, and a commitment to justice.

As an Indian, Tinani's achievements serve as a beacon of hope for those in need and a source of national pride for his homeland.

What exactly is your famous Vastu Shankha Yantra and how cost effective is it?

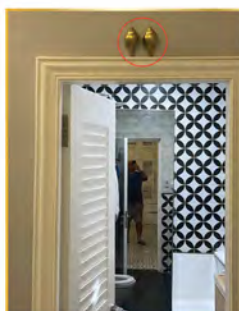

Based on the principles of Vastu, the Vastu Shankha Yantra is an original conch shell used to potentially rectify any kind of land, Vastu or energy defects without making any modifications. It can potentially save a lot of time & money as it is used to create positive energy in places having major Vastu defects without changing the looks and beauty of the place.

Vimal Jhajharia along with his son Vikas Jhajharia

Vastu is protection against unforeseen circumstances. It is used to increase personal energy in health, wealth and relationships of a person

Does the Vastu Shankha Yantra really work for prosperity in factories and industries?

Yes, we have a big list of successful clients including businessmen, entrepreneurs, doctors, scientists, professionals, architects, interior designers, etc giving testimonials on our website.

Endorsing the Vastu Shankha Yantra is industrialist Sushil from New Delhi. He says, "My son and I are running a factory but were not getting the desired results. We came to know about Vimalji and Vikasji through one of their articles in inflight magazines. Upon showing them the factory, we immediately realised our north was blocked and all the heavy machinery was placed along the north wall. We then got the Vastu Shankha yantras placed at certain places on Jhajharia ji's recommendation. Now, every new factory of ours is made under their able guidance and we also recommend them to all our friends and relatives"

Can Vastu Shankha Yantra also help in selling a property?

Yes, we do a lot of Vastu correction for builders and developers and also individuals whose properties have been stuck for a long time and which are not getting sold because of some or the other Vastu defect. Vouching for success is Satish from Bangalore who was trying to sell his four acres property for two years. When we saw the property, we saw it had multiple corners & it was not a proper rectangle or a square. We then positively charged this property by placing our Vastu Shankha Yantras in various corners to help correct the magnetic field of the property and hence creating positive energy in the atmosphere.

SPICEJET TEAM CELEBRATES AUTISM DAY WITH ASHIANA

On the occasion of World Autism Awareness Day, our Cabin crew team had the privilege of visiting Ashiana — a vibrant centre in Mumbai that supports children with autism. It was a day that left a lasting impression on all of us.

Each child had their own unique light — some expressive, some observant, all united by a beautiful eagerness to connect and be seen. Their curiosity, laughter, and unfiltered joy reminded us of the power of presence, patience, and understanding.

The day was filled with warmth and celebration, with the children putting up lively performances that lit up the room. Their energy was infectious — and before we knew it, we were dancing alongside them, caught up in the joy of the moment. Over shared snacks and conversations, we connected with the children, their teachers, and caregivers — each one a pillar of strength and compassion.

What we took away was more than just memories. It was a deeper appreciation of neurodiversity, and a renewed belief in empathy, inclusivity, and human connection. We're all different in our own ways — and so are they. What matters is that every difference is cherished.

Sights, sounds, smells, crowds, and chaos; Kathmandu's sensory overload hits you the moment you walk out of the airport. The traffic-jammed alleyways of the old town, the beautiful medieval temples, the buzz of people conversing in Gorkhali, and the oh-so-delicious cuisine—it's all so exhilarating!

KATHMANDU

A VIBE ALL ITS OWN

TEJA LELE

The capital of Nepal, located near the confluence of the Bagmati and Bishnumati rivers, is one of the oldest inhabited places in the world. The name translates as 'wooden temple' (kath: wood; mandir: temple), the structure of which is said to have been built from the wood of a single tree in 1596 by Raja Lachmina Singh.

Kathmandu Valley, roughly 25km wide, was historically made up of many kingdoms, foremost of which were Kathmandu, Patan (also known as Lalitpur), and Bhaktapur (or, Bhadgaon). The three ancient towns now comprise a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with seven different monument zones: their respective Durbar Squares, the Hindu sites of Pashupatinath Temple and Changu Narayan, and the two Buddhist sanctuaries, Swayambhunath and Boudhanath. Besides these, the Valley is liberally sprinkled with numerous exquisite monuments, sculptures, and art, going back to Nepal's golden era of architecture.

BUILT TO LAST AND DELIGHT

It might have been impacted by the 2015 earthquake but the Durbar Square complex continues to stand tall as a stunning example of local architecture — beautiful temples (Hindu and Buddhist) co-exist with palaces, courtyards, and ponds. The pagodas feature traditional Newari wooden carvings, strong on religious symbolism.

Patan, 7km from Kathmandu, has a laidback Durbar Square, ideal for people seeking more. A showcase of the Newari style, it features over 600 stupas, 136 bahals (courtyards), and 55 major shrines, on an ancient red brick-paved floor. More than 20 large temples and three palaces were built between the 16th and 18th centuries, when the Malla kings held sway in the Kathmandu Valley.

Pashupatinath Temple — one of the most sacred Hindu temples in Nepal — is located on the banks of the Bagmati. In existence since 400 CE, it attracts thousands of pilgrims to its shrines, ashrams, artworks and inscriptions, which have come up over the centuries. This living cultural heritage site includes 518 mini temples, and a main temple built like a traditional pagoda in Newari style. As night falls, Pashupatinath

Dominating the Kathmandu skyline is the Boudhanath Stupa, which allows visitors to experience the city's spiritual side. The large whitewashed dome, all-seeing gaze of the Buddha, and the prayer flags fluttering in the wind, create a sense of peace, which is accentuated at night when hundreds of butter lamps illuminate the historic stupa. Located opposite the stupa is Guru Lhakhang Gompa, one of the oldest monasteries in the area.

BEYOND ARCHITECTURE

Nepal's capital has hidden depths that surface only when you explore this enigmatic but wonderful city at leisure—and beyond its captivating statues and stupas. By embracing its rich folk and classical dance, numerous festivals (including Dashain), and colourful handicrafts, you will discover that Kathmandu is a hotbed of culture comes alive with the aarti, a heady mix of pilgrims, chants and smoke.

Perched high above the city is Swayambhunath, or the 'Monkey Temple,' — you must climb 365 stairs to reach this place. One of the city's most important religious sites, the complex—comprising a domed stupa and ornate shrines—has been functional since the 5th century. The stupa's dome symbolises the earth, while the 13-tiered gold structure on its top, represents the 13 stages of nirvana. Here, you can pay obeisance and enjoy stunning views of Kathmandu, day or night.

and creativity. In the ancient Newari city of Bhaktapur (14km from Kathmandu), labyrinthine alleyways will lead you to pottery makers, painters, carpenters, and craftsmen at work, making this a fantastic place to buy souvenirs.

Meanwhile, early mornings or evenings are the best time to visit the beautiful Garden of Dreams (Swapna Bagaicha), conceptualised for a Field Marshal of the Royal Nepalese Army - Kaiser Shumsher Jung Bahadur Rana. The garden, minutes away from backpacker hotspot Thamel, is a tucked-away haven inspired by the English gardens of the Edwardian era. The verdant lawns and abundance of plant life here combine with the fountains, ponds, and pavilions—each named after Nepal's six traditional seasons—to create an oasis of calm ●

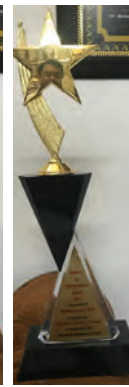

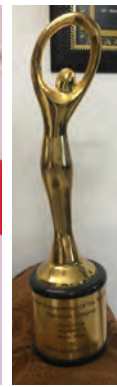

Savour your tastebud

Kathmandu also boasts a top-notch food scene. Nepali diners (bhojanalayas) serve traditional staples in a humble setting: enjoy local delights like momos, choila, thukpa, and dal bhat tarkari at Yangling, Thakali Kitchen, and Silauta. For western fare, the choices are aplenty: Roadhouse Café, OR2K, Chez Caroline, Rosemary Kitchen & Coffee Shop, and Cafe Mitra.

Base Camp

For those with an eye on Mount Everest, Kathmandu is the first stop on their journey. The South Base Camp around 5,364m is a campsite at the base of Everest from which climbers begin their ascent of the mountain in earnest. The trek starts from the mountain settlement of Lukla, which can be reached via a hike from Kathmandu (though most preserve energy and time by taking a turboprop aircraft from the Nepal capital).

From the small town of Chandpur in Bijnor district to the commanding helm of a global enterprise, the story of Mohammad Ather is not just about business—it's about belief, resilience, and staying true to one's roots.

Born into a large family as one of ten siblings, Mohammad Ather's childhood was filled with both challenges and cherished memories. His father ran a small workshop and instilled in him the most important life lesson: "Do anything, but do it honestly and wholeheartedly." That mantra would guide him through every twist and turn of his life.

Though resources were scarce, his curiosity and spirit were abundant. He enjoyed his childhood, surrounded by the warmth of a close-knit family. But ambition tugged at him early. In 1994, driven by dreams bigger than Chandpur could hold, he moved to Delhi. As he arrived in the bustling capital, he looked up at his elder brother and said, "I won't go back. Help me... maybe one day I'll be able to." That was the beginning.

Humble Beginnings and Tough Roads

Mohammad Ather began at the bottom. He became a door-to-door salesman, selling cutlery, a job that tested every ounce of his perseverance. "It was tough," he recalls. Yet, every rejection hardened his resolve. He later joined a survey project studying poultry farms in Khurja, where he asked questions, learned how the system worked, and absorbed every detail like a sponge.

That curiosity led him to dabble in advertising, working on a magazine that sold ad space. He even became a typist, entering data for a company called Indigro. Every experience added a layer to his growing skillset.

In 2005, Mohammad Ather got married to Nazia Hassan, the woman who would stand by him through every storm. But just two months later, he lost his job. It was a low point, but also a turning one.

The Birth of Azan Group

In 2011, Mohammad Ather took the leap. With a small desk in a modest office, he started his own company. "My client told me, 'I'll support you,'" he remembers. No one visited his tiny office, but his clients trusted him—and that trust became the foundation of his business.

He began handling containers, delivering results that even established players couldn't match. After two years, he made a profit, but still hadn't tapped into exports. A client encouraged him: "Why not open an export firm?" Mohammad Ather had no interest at first. But eventually, he did—and it changed everything.

Today, Azan Group includes seven companies: three in export-import and four in shipping & logistics. They serve clients across the Far East, the Gulf, and Africa, operating on two fronts: exporting their own goods and facilitating exports for others.

Faith in the Face of Crisis

But even after success, the road wasn't always smooth. "There came a time when our company came down to zero," Mohammad Ather shares. "I even thought about going back to doing a job again."

At that critical moment, it wasn't strategy that saved him—it was faith. During the holy month of Ramzan, the family turned entirely to prayer and fasting. "For one whole month, we asked for His help. We cried, we prayed," he says. "And see—by His grace, where we have reached today."

It was a turning point that reminded Mohammad Ather that no matter how hard the journey, faith and perseverance could bring him back on track.

Family, Faith, and Forward Motion

Despite his success, Mohammad Ather's life is grounded in his values and family. He and Nazia have three daughters and one son—a tight-knit unit that has stood by each other through thick and thin.

They once drove a Maruti 800, and even now, Mohammad Ather speaks of those days with affection, not embarrassment. "Be truthful," he says. "And stay dutiful—to your work, your people, and your purpose."

The journey of Mohammad Ather is not about sudden fame or shortcuts. It's a story built on character, consistency, and quiet courage—a story that reminds us that with honesty in your heart, hard work in your hands, and faith in your soul, there's no limit to how far you can go.

His thirst for excellence led him to train at Tata Memorial Hospital in Mumbai, followed by advanced fellowships in Switzerland and the United States. Despite the allure of international opportunities, his vision remained clear-bringing world-class healthcare to his homeland.

"My responsibility is not just to treat patients but to ensure they receive selfless, high-quality care at their doorstep," says Dr. Takalkar.

While many of his peers chose the global stage, he saw an opportunity in the challenges of his region. He returned to Maharashtra, where healthcare infrastructure struggled to keep pace with modern demands, and envisioned a medical facility that would address multi-disciplinary needs under one roof.

The birth of CIIGMA: A game-changer in healthcare founded in 2007, CIIGMA Hospital stands for Cancer, Infertility, Intensive Care, Gastroenterology, Gynecology, Maternity, & Anesthesia - a name that encapsulates its comprehensive approach to patient care, started as a 40-bed facility has now expanded into a 300-bed multi-specialty network in collaboration with CARE CIIGMA Group.

"Our most valuable asset is our people-competent doctors, administrators, nurses, and technicians working in sync to provide the best care," he emphasizes.

CARE CIIGMA Hospital is the first NABH & ISO-accredited hospital in the region, a reflection of its world-class infrastructure and protocols. Beyond patient care, the institution has also pioneered clinical research, establishing Marathwada's first NABH-accredited Ethics Committee for clinical trials & research.

Transforming Lives: The human impact the true impact of Dr. Takalkar's work is measured not just in numbers and accolades, but in the thousands of lives transformed. Before CIIGMA, patients often had to travel hundreds of kilometers for specialized treatment. Today, advanced care is accessible at their doorstep.

Expanding CIIGMA's reach by establishing satellite centers across tier-2 and tier-3 cities Incorporating AI-driven diagnostics to improve efficiency and precision.

The man behind the mission despite his monumental achievements, Dr. Takalkar remains deeply grounded. He is often seen personally checking on patients, ensuring that the ethos of compassionate care remains intact. His ability to blend technology, expertise, and empathy makes him a true game-changer in Indian healthcare.

His story is a powerful reminder that success in medicine is not measured by personal achievements alone, but by the lasting positive impact one creates in society. In a world where many seek fortune abroad, Dr. Unmesh Vidyadhar Takalkar chose to build a legacy at home-one that will inspire generations to come.

DIVA OF ALL TIMES

FLORINA SOREN

From television, to rocking the silver screen with her dance numbers, to being an ageless diva, Malaika Arora has been balancing multiple roles with elan. She has recently donned a new hat - that of a restaurateur. She is also the star judge in the very popular Hip Hop India Season 2 dance show, all this and a lot more is what keeps Malaika close to her fans.

You are often seen holidaying. Tell us about your favourite travel destinations in India and abroad.

Yes, I love travelling and exploring new destinations. Whenever I can manage to steal some lean time from my busy schedule, I am travelling to new places. Though India is filled with breathtaking destinations, Goa is my all-time favourite. Internationally, I would say New York and Maldives.

Do you like to relax while on a holiday or go all out with a must-see or a must-do list?

It mostly depends which place I'm going to. If I'm going to Maldives then obviously I don't want to leave the beach, there's not much to do. And if I am in Goa, I just love to chill with my friends. However, if it is a city like New York, then I am super excited about exploring everything - restaurants, museums, walks, shopping, literally everything.

You manage to look so fashionable even when you're traveling. Any quick tips for a perfect airport look?

For me travel is all about comfort. So, I feel, right from your footwear to your clothes, everything should always be about easy comfort. I'm somebody who feels very cold on flights. So, that is the reason you will always see me wearing things that keep me warm on flights.

It is so good to see you in Realme Hip Hop India Season 2. Tell us a little about the dancing talent that you will see in these shows and what is your favourite dance style?

Yes, it is an amazing experience to be part of the show. I think the talent here is amazing. The participants from across the country are superbly talented. Of course true hip hop is always something that I really love but things like krump is new to me - I had only heard about it. Here I am exposed to such innovative dance styles. Of course popping, locking - all of these are there but just pure hip hop is what I really really love.

Last question, what is in store for all the Malaika fans in 2025? Share something about your upcoming projects.

Oh! There is a lot going on. There's another show that I'll be doing, besides I am busy with my newly opened restaurant - Scarlett House. And yes, I would like SpiceRoute - the SpiceJet in-flight magazine to feature my restaurant in it ●

Career Compass: Unlocking a great future

In an era when career paths are getting dynamic and diverse, it is very important that youths find the right direction. Choosing a career is one of the most important decisions a student makes during their time at university. Universities offer a wide range of courses, providing students with countless opportunities to explore their interests, develop their skills, and prepare for future careers. Varying from engineering, medicine, management, law and new courses such as Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, Digital Marketing, and much more, the universities are poised to set new benchmarks in the space of higher education. However, with so many options available, making the right choice can be overwhelming.

One of the key factors in selecting a career path is self-awareness. It is very important that students understand their strengths, passions, and long-term goals. Fortunately, these days universities are providing career counselling services, aptitude tests, and workshops to help them discover where their true interests lie. These resources can guide students towards careers that align with their skills and values.

Secondly, understanding the job market is yet another aspect while choosing a career. It's imperative that students should research the demand for professionals in their field of interest, the potential for growth, salary expectations, and necessary qualifications. Fields like technology, healthcare, engineering, and business are currently in high demand. Having said that, it's not wise to overlook passion. A fulfilling career is often a blend of personal interest and market opportunities.

Similarly, it's advisable to go for internships, volunteer work, and part-time jobs during university years, as a field experience can also play a crucial role in shaping career decisions. Apart from giving students practical exposure and helping them in building a professional network, they also give a clarity of the job scenario.

With the right guidance, progressive attitude, and a willingness to learn, students can embark on careers that are not only successful but also personally rewarding •

Coconut Water Smoothie Bowls or Smoked Aam Panna

Coconut water smoothie bowls and smoked aam panna are very popular in summer. Coconut water's natural electrolytes provide a refreshing base when blended with frozen fruits such as wood apple, pineapple, kiwi, or banana. If you want to make it even tastier, add toppings like roasted seeds, desiccated coconut, or mint. It will also offer texture and flavour. Similarly, smoked aam panna, made with smoked raw mangoes churned with ice, jeera, and jaggery, is highly regarded for its unique gustatory appeal; the salted version is equally favoured.

Watermelon Feta Bites

Watermelon feta bites are another sought-after summertime option. Cubes of sweet watermelon paired with tangy feta cheese are enhanced with a balsamic glaze and garnished with basil or mint for a hydrating and flavour-packed snack, well-suited to social events or evening nibbles.

Iced Herbal Teas and Honey Matcha Dalgona Lassi

For beverages, iced herbal teas like hibiscus, lemongrass, or chamomile are in demand. Often served with slices of citrus fruit, cucumber, or berries and fresh mint or tulsi, these iced teas are both hydrating and soothing. Honey matcha dalgona lassi—a frothy blend of matcha incorporated into classic lassi with honey as a sweetener—offers novelty and visual appeal.

Chilled Millet and Cranberry Salads

Chilled millet and cranberry salads make the most of ancient grains like foxtail millet, kodo, and barnyard millet. These are tossed with cranberry, cucumber, gooseberry, cherry tomatoes, bell peppers, lime juice, and a selection of fresh herbs. Millets, being naturally gluten-free, are gentle on digestion and provide long-lasting energy.

Chia Seed and American Pecan Pudding

You can also savour your taste bud with a healthy pudding made of chia seed, the American pecan pudding. It is crafted by soaking chia seeds in almond milk or coconut milk to create a gelatinous texture. Sweetened with honey or jaggery and topped with fresh mangoes or berries and American pecan, it emerges as a nutrient-rich, dessert-inspired snack high in fibre and omega-3s.

Fruit & Yogurt Parfaits

Fruit and yogurt parfaits are the simplest and most effective. A typical serving, fruit and yogurt parfaits is filled with layers of chilled yogurt combined with seasonal fruits such as mangoes, berries, bananas, or even wood apples, all finished with a sprinkle of granola or chia seeds. Vegans or people with lactic allergy can also use dairy alternatives like almond milk yogurt or cashew milk. Add frozen cubes of mango or watermelon for an extra cooling effect. It works perfectly as toppers.

Healthy snacking in summer doesn't mean compromising on taste or convenience. The key is to choose seasonal, water-rich ingredients, limit processed sugar, and incorporate natural cooling elements like mint, yogurt, coconut, and citrus. Whether you're lounging at home, heading to work, or prepping for a summer picnic, these snacks can help you stay energised, cool, throughout the season.

So go ahead—ditch the heavy, greasy bites and embrace the lightness of summer with these wholesome, refreshing snack ideas!

STEP INTO THE STEPWELL

Gujarat is home to over 500 stepwells, located in almost every town. For those staying within the heart of Ahmedabad, the 'Bai Harir Vav' offers a perfect alternative. A 15th century stepwell in Asarwa area, around 15 km off Ahmedabad, this hidden gem provides a peaceful retreat from the city's bustle. The Arabic and Sanskrit inscriptions alongside beautifully carved idols are worth a watch. The stepwell spans five levels, supported by intricately carved pillars that display remarkable symmetry. At one end lies a grand octagonal well, plunging to a depth of 190 feet.

SABARMATI ASHRAM VIBES

Also known as Gandhi Ashram, Sabarmati Ashram is a key highlight of Ahmedabad. Located on the banks of the Sabarmati River, it was once Mahatma Gandhi's abode, and now serves as a museum showcasing his life, values, and role in India's freedom struggle. Open throughout the day, the ashram offers a serene atmosphere and features Gandhi's iconic charkha, handwritten letters, paintings, and a library. For a deeper insight, a 90-minute guided tour is also available.

My Town

In our series, we travel to various Indian destinations with a SpiceJet family member. This time, Shivani Singh – takes us around her home city, Agra.

MS. SHIVANI SINGH
CABIN CREW

Where is your hometown, and tell us one thing, which is very special about the place?

I was born and brought up in Agra- the 'City of Taj'. Apart from being known as the city of love, Agra takes pride in spreading the spirit of 'unity and diversity', and I love the essence of this culture. It is home to people from diverse cultural backgrounds. This harmony is reflected in its vibrant festivals and rich culinary traditions. People of my city are affectionate; they are proud of the rich cultural heritage of the city- from historical sites to its lively markets, you'll always get a warm welcome from the people of this city. In short, Agra truly embodies the essence of 'Atithi Devo Bhava', making every visitor feel welcomed and valued.

Tell us about one thing that makes you come back to your hometown again and again...

Agra, a blend of rich historical legacy, harmonises beautifully with modern experiences. This is reflected in its vibrant cuisine, warm hospitality, and evolving infrastructure. But it's the culinary delicacies that attracts me the most. And the first thing that comes to my mind is Petha — the city's signature sweet. Available in an array of irresistible flavours- from paan to kesar, this melt-in-the-mouth delicacy, is one of my favourites and a must-try for visitors. Similarly, while Agra is famed for its royal Mughlai delicacies, its street food is equally captivating. The bustling lanes offer an explosion of flavors- tangy chaats, crispy kachoris, spicy dalmoth, flavourful cheela, tikki, among others, are my favourites.

Which is the perfect hang out spot in your town?

'Mehtab Bagh' is one of the most-beautiful and peaceful hangout spots in Agra. This charbagh style (a Persian and Mughal style of garden layout characterised by its quadrilateral structure) garden, which lies next to the Taj Mahal and Agra Fort, on the opposite side of bank of the Yamuna River, offers some of the most breathtaking views of the sunrise and sunset over the Taj. A favourite destination for families and friends, it is a perfect picnic spot for both young and old. The lush green scenic spot has also been a popular choice for movie shoots in the past.

Interestingly, there's an interesting story behind Mehtab Bagh. It is believed that Mughal emperor Shah Jahan, who built the majestic Taj Mahal, wanted a mirror image or a replica of the original one- the Black Taj, across the Yamuna River. However, this vision of him was never realised, as he was overthrown by his son Aurangzeb and imprisoned, following a brief spell of illness. The site was later transformed into Mehtab Bagh, which in turn preserved its charm as a serene retreat with an unparalleled view of the Taj.

Name one restaurant that you would recommend to a visitor, and a not-to-miss delicacy on the menu.

Agra's vibrant food scene offers something for everyone to savour and relish- from street food delights to fine dining experiences. 'Esphahan', is my all-time favourite - it's a restaurant that truly captures the essence of Mughal cuisine. With its elegant candlelit ambiance and live classical music, the restaurant provides a deep and authentic dining experience.

Similarly, for those with a sweet tooth, 'Bhagat Halwai', one of the oldest sweet shops in India, is a must-visit. The shop, located at Dayal Bagh, has been serving traditional flavours for generations, offering a taste of Agra's rich culinary heritage.

What is the best season to visit your hometown and why?

Winter in Agra is truly magical- The cool breeze, serene ambience, the irresistible aroma of hot kachoris, jalebis, and the hot roadside chai, adds warmth to a cosy winter. A leisurely walk along the Yamuna River, with the breathtaking Taj Mahal in the backdrop, will make your trip an unforgettable experience.

Besides, the Taj Mahotsav is the highlight of the season—a grand 10-day cultural festival in February - it brings Agra to life with vibrant music, dance, art, and crafts, offering a glimpse into India's rich heritage.

Which are the must-visit places in your town?

Agra is a city drenched in history. Taj Mahal is the heart and soul of the city. It's an architectural masterpiece symbolising eternal love. Built in the 17th century by Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of Mumtaz Mahal, its symmetry, intricate craftsmanship, and glowing white marble facade makes it one of the most-breathtaking wonders in the world.

Equally fascinating is the Agra Fort. Also known as the Red Fort or Qila-i-Akbari, it's a massive Mughal stronghold that was the imperial residence until 1638. Its towering walls and majestic gateways hold centuries of history within its fold. Another must-visit is Sikandra, the grand tomb of Akbar the Great. Nestled within lush gardens and battlemented walls, this magnificent mausoleum showcases a blend of Mughal and Persian architecture ●

QUICK DAY-TRIP OUTSIDE AGRA

Fatehpur Sikri: A former Mughal capital, this UNESCO World Heritage Site boasts magnificent structures like Jama Masjid, Buland Darwaza, and Diwan-i-Khas. It's a must-visit for history enthusiasts.

Mathura: As the birthplace of Lord Krishna, Mathura is a sacred city filled with temples and cultural landmarks. It offers a deep spiritual experience.

Vrindavan: Closely associated with Lord Krishna's life, Vrindavan is home to revered temples like Banke Bihari and ISKCON. The ambience around it creates a peaceful, divine atmosphere.

Keoladeo National Park, Bharatpur: A paradise for nature lovers, this bird sanctuary shelters hundreds of species, especially migratory birds in winter, making it an ideal getaway for wildlife enthusiasts.
